

FAQ

Question

What is included in the food and beverage minimum spend?

Answer

All food and beverage purchases made during your event, including your guest's purchases, count towards the minimum spend. Gift card and merchandise purchases do not count towards the food & beverage minimum spend amount, other exclusions are tax, gratuity and room rental fees. If at the event's end, your minimum spend is unmet, you may purchase additional food & beverage or you may opt to add any unmet balance to your final bill as a room rental fee.

FAQ

Question

Can I bring in outside food?

Answer

We do not permit any outside food or beverage to be brought into the event spaces, all food and beverages, must be purchased through Brewer's Alley. A few exceptions are bottled wine, guests may bring in their own bottled wine, however, there would be a $15 corking fee per bottle opened. For outside desserts, we do permit guests to bring in desserts from licensed bakeries, they must arrive in their original packaging and there is a $1.50 cake-cutting fee per guest. Homemade desserts are not permitted due to Health Department Regulations.

FAQ

Question

Do you offer the restaurant's menu for private events?

Answer

For our private reservations, we do require guests to order from our banquet event menus. We have extensive offerings on our banquet menu and are always available to create custom menus to address the specific allergen needs of your guests.

FAQ

Question

What forms of payment do you accept?

Answer

For deposit and final bill payments we accept cash and debit/credit card payments. Deposit payments are non-refundable and applied to your final bill on the day of your event. Final payments are due at your event's end, we allow the final bill to be split up to three ways. Personal Checks are not accepted, electronic invoices are available if requested for deposit payments.

FAQ

Question

Can I have a DJ at my event?

Answer

We do allow outside music vendors when renting both spaces only. We do offer a sound system within the space to play any specific playlist. Our event spaces are equipped with Smart Tv's for slideshows or presentations.

FAQ

Question

What is provided with my room rental?

Answer

We provide tables for buffet, guest seating, and gifts, and all needed chairs. We offer round, rectangle, and high-top tables and will work with you on what setup will work best for your event style. We provide standard white linens for all tables, white linen napkins, all cutlery & plate ware, and hurricane globes with candles for table centerpieces. If you prefer to provide your own linens for your event you may do so and can coordinate with our events manager.

FAQ

Question

Do you allow time for decorating prior to my event?

Answer

Yes, we allow one-hour before the start of your event for any needed setup/decorating that is not counted towards your three-hour room rental time, we also give an allowance of 30 minutes after your event for any needed cleanup. We do allow outside décor, however we do NOT permit any items to be hung from the ceiling or walls. All balloons must be weighted, and we do NOT permit the use of glitter or confetti in the spaces. If any of these items are used there will be a $100 cleaning fee assessed to the final bill.

FAQ

Question

When do I need to provide you with my final menu and headcounts?

Answer

Your final menu is due at least 30 days prior to your event, at this time all final pricing will be set. After 30 days you may request menu changes, however, we can not guarantee they will be accommodated. Your final headcount is due a minimum of 7 days prior to your event, this is the number that will be used for final meal preparation amounts.
